ADD ON PROGRAMS

If you want your Program not only characterized with competitive fencing, we organize some add on Programs as follows:

1. Heidelberg

Heidelberg is a charming city. Steeped in tradition, this town is home to seemingly contrasting worlds. This makes it exciting and keeps it young at heart. Take some time to get to know the city and discover its many facets. You'll be inspired.

The Oldest European: There is proof that the Heidelberg region offered favourable conditions for the human species from early on: One of the first traces of ancient man, a 600,000 year old jaw-bone of the "Homo Heidelbergensis", was found at the city's outskirts in 1907. A copy of the most famous lower jaw worldwide is on display at the Museum of the Palatinate.

UNESCO Heritage Site Residence Palace

The Residence Palace – The “Castle above all Castles”

The Residence Palace is one of Europe’s most renowned baroque castles and it is registered as a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site. The castle was built by Balthasar Neumann and includes a much acclaimed staircase with awe inspiring frescos by the Venetian artist Tiepolo.

Principal work of South German Baroque-era architecture. One of the most important castles in Europe. Built from 1720 – 1744 based on the design by Balthasar Neumann, with help from L. von Hildebrandt of Vienna and M. von Welsch of Mainz. Not destroyed in 1945 were the magnificent staircase with its self-supporting vault and the brilliant ceiling painting by the Venetian artist G. B. Tiepolo. White hall with ornate stucco ornamentation by A. Bossi. Imperial hall with splendid furnishings and frescos by G. B. Tiepolo. Garden hall with ceiling painting by Johann Zick. Reconstructed are the “Imperial chambers” furnished in very ornate rococo style from 1740 – 70.
